Miscetianeous.

Ship North Atlantic—Calcutta, Feb 22—At 2 AM yester day a fire broke out on board the ship North Atlantic, lying at the Police Ghat morring: (as before reported). She was laden with jute and sattpetre. How the fire originated has not not been discovered, but it appears a fire broke out in the sailey the previous day, and a supposition is entertained that it was not extinguished and worked its way into the hold among the cargo. With such an inflammable cargo the difficulty of saving the ship with every available means would of course have been great, but to the absence of any means whatever the thing was impossible. The officers and crew soon abandoned the ship to her fate, and within a short time after the discovery of the fire ahe was in flames from stem to stern. To prevent the ship blowing up by the gration of the salipeire on board, a battery or royal artillery was brought on the wharf, and several shots were fired into her hull in order to scuttle her, which was finally successful. It is expected, however, that the ship is for the most part destroyed.

SYMPATHY WITH MEXICO.

Grand Banquet to the Mexican Minister.

Strong Gathering of Republican

A Direct Threat to the French Invader.

The Monroe Doctrine to Firmly Maintained.

VIEWS OF SENOR M. ROMERO.

Speeches of Ex-Mayor Opdyke and Other Citizens,

On the evening of the 29th of March last a banquet was given in this city, at Delmonico's Hotel, corer of Fourteenth street and Fifth avenue, in bonor of Senor Don Matias Romero, Minister Plenipotentiary of view of manifesting their sympathy towards the Mexican nation in the bloody struggle they are now carrying on against their invaders. The private character which it was considered proper to give to this demonstration, notwithstanding the importance with which it was invested, its spontaneity, and a thousand other circumstances, have, perhaps, been partly the cause that papers. About a month ago some of our citizens pro-jected a demonstration in favor of the Mexican cause, that, without taking cognizance of the policy which cir-cumstances may have obliged the government of this country to follow, should manifest the dominant feeling in regard to the invasion of Mexico, not only among the great mass of the people of the United States, but among those classes especially favored by intelli-gence, learning, position or fortune. They soon found have collected a very large subscription if the desires they had of carrying out at the earliest opportunity their ntentions, and other considerations of minor importance had not prevented it. So that, without more delay, the following invitation was sent to Washington to Seno

Romero:—

THE INVITATION TO THE BANQUET FROM IRADING
CIFIZENS OF NEW YORK.

New York, Feb. 16, 1864.

DEAR Sir.—The undersigned, in common with many loyal citizens, feel much interest in the present condition of Mexico, that important continental State.

We cordially sympathize with the people of Mexico in their une and struggle, and, appreciating their bravery and sacrides, and your services in maintaining the integrity or your country, we tender to you, as the faultful representative of Mexico, a dinner in this city, on Tuesday, March 29. Your obedient servants,

MR. ROMERO'S REPLY ACCEPTING THE HONOR.

MEXICAN LEGATION IN THE UNITIO STATES OF AMERICA.

GENGREEN—I have just had the honor to receive your kind eleter of the 18th ultimo, informing me that you, it common with many loyal citizens, feel much interest in the present condition of Mexico, cordisilly symputhize with the people of that republic in their bravery and sacrifices, as well as my services (you kindly add) insimiling the integrity of my country. You are good enough to tender to me, as the representative of Mexico, a dinner in your city on the 23th instant.

Nothing could be more graiffying to myself and to my countrymen than seeing that we have with us the enghtened and uninterested sympathy of so many of the most distinguished and eminent citizens, whose virtues, learning and persevering enterprise have made of the city of New York the great metropolis of the New World.

The demonstration with which you intend to honor the noble cause for which my country is fighting against one of the strongest and best organized military Powers on earth, while it shows your high opinion of the question and your great sense of justice, will be dely appreciated and thanked for by my government and my countrymen, as well as by all unbiassed and disherested people throughout the world, who have some regard for justice, and cannot help noticing it entirely trampled down by and connot help noticing it entirely trampled down by towards Mexico.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
M. ROMERO. Messrs. William Cullen Bryant, &c., &c. In addition to the invitation by letter, Mr. Romero re-ceived a despatch from Mr. Aspinwall, chairman of the invitation Committee, asking him to be present at the banquet on the 29th. To this the Minister replied as follows:—

To this the Minister replied as follows:—

Mexicas Legation in the United States of America, Washington, March 25, 1864.

My Dear Sir.—I had the bonor to day to receive the kind note which you were meased to address to me on the 18th inst, in which you have graciously proposed, in your own name as well as in these of many of your fellow citizens, who cordually sympathize with Mexico in the anequal combat which she is now assisting, as well as with myself, who represent her, that, should accept a dinner in the city of New York, on Tuesday, the 29th inst., at seven o'clock P. M.

In reply, while sincerely acknowledging your own kindness and that of your distinguished friends in offering me such a demonstration, which, from the elevated-cocial position and sentiest qualities of the gentlemen from whom it originates, carries with it a great significance, I have the honor to say that I have already accepted the dinner in a letter sited the 12th itstant, which I had the pleasure to address to the gentlemen who were kind ecough to offer it to me, and that I will start for your city so as to be present on the day appointed. I am, respectfully, &c., &c., &c...

Mr. Wis. H. Aspriwall, President of the Invitations formulations.

M. ROMERO.
Mr. Ws. H. Aspenwall, President of the Invitation committee, New York.
The feast was held in the best saloons of Delmonico's hotel, occupying four of the largest. Two were set apart for the reception and convenience of the guests, one for the banquet itself, and the fourth for the orchestra and other matters indispensable to the occasion. The great dining saloon, of five hundred covers, was illuminated for the purpose of receiving a number of ladies and gen-tlemen belonging to the families of the guests, who asembled to see the table and its ornaments prior to the beginning of the banquet. Important additions had been made to the usual furniture and decorations of those splendid rooms; and, among other things that delighted the sight, there was a profusion of exquisite flowers, arranged in garlands, branches, twigs, baskets, flowerpots, &c., distributed over the doors, tables and fireplaces, at the sides of the mirrors, and wherever they could serve as graceful ornaments. The ball in which the banquet was set out displayed a most magnificent spectacle. At the head, the national flags of the United States and of the republic of Mexico were placed togother Ou the table itself there were more than five pyramids formed of slender branches of flowers; a splendid sugar piece, four feet high, placed in the centre, representing the arms of the Mexican republic—that is, the eagle standing in the cochiacal or Indian. fig tree—the whole supported by a rock which elegant table was also decorated with a palm and various kinds of cartus, as a memorial of the tropical clime and productions of Mexico. There was also a piece of pastry work in the form of a small temple, on which were dis tinctly written these two names-"Justez," "Crago"the berole President and gallant General in Chief who are now at the head of the Mexican patri ts. A touching and moving picture was presented by those illustrious citizens of the American Union vicing with such other in entertaining and welcoming the representative of Mexico, the neighboring republic, in an hour the most difficult and critical that has ever dawned upon her. The generosity of the sentiment which inspires certain men with the desire of honoring and sustaining with demonstrations of affection those who are struggling with misfortune is something that is only within the reach of noble minds-of intelligent and well organized hearts. But we must come back to the prosaic but substantial and important question of the dinner itself, without going into particulars, and reserving what is technically termed the "menu" to be inserted afterwards. This we will take from the elegant bills of fare, printed in blue with .
